General Instructions

Purpose of Form

Use Form N-289 to inform the transferee/buyer that the withholding of tax is not required upon the disposition of Hawaii real property if (1) the transferor/seller is a resident person, (2) by reason of a nonrecognition provision of the Internal Revenue Code as operative under chapter 235, HRS, or the provisions of any United States treaty, the transferor/seller is not required to recognize any gain or loss with respect to the transfer, or (3) for the year preceding the date of the transfer the property has been used by the transferor/seller as a principal residence, and that the amount realized for the property does not exceed $300,000.

Who Can Complete Form N-289

The transferor/seller can complete Form N-289.

Where to Send Form N-289

Form N-289 must be completed by the transferor/seller and given to the transferee/buyer. The transferor/seller should NOT file Form N-289 with the Department of Taxation for approval. The transferee/buyer is to retain Form N-289 and NOT forward it to the Department of Taxation if ALL the transferor/sellers have provided a certification of exemption on Form N-289 to the transferee/buyer. If one or more, but not all of the transferor/sellers has provided a certification of exemption on Form N-289 to the transferee/buyer, the transferee/buyer shall attach a copy of the Form N-289 to Forms N-288 and N-288A, which must still be filed with the Department of Taxation.

Specific Instructions

At the top of Form N-289, enter the transferor/seller's name, identification number (social security number, individual identification number or federal I.D. number), and address. The Internal Revenue Service (IRS) issues Individual Taxpayer Identification Numbers (ITINs) to certain aliens who are required to have a U. S. taxpayer identification number but who do not have, and are not eligible to obtain, a social security number. The ITIN issued by the IRS must be used as the individual's identification number.

Check the applicable box to indicate the reason the withholding of tax is not required upon the disposition of Hawaii real property. If box number 2 is checked, complete sections A and B requesting a brief description of the transfer and a brief summary of the law and facts supporting the claim that recognition of gain or loss is not required with respect to the transfer.

NOTE: Although the withholding of tax may not be required upon the disposition of Hawaii real property, the transferor/seller is required under section 235-92, HRS, to file an income tax return to report the sale or other disposition.

Signature

Form N-289 must be signed by an individual, a responsible corporate officer, a member or general partner of a partnership, or a trustee, executor, or other fiduciary of a trust or estate. In addition, Form N-289 may be signed by an authorized agent with a power of attorney.
